¹ An 'actual' conflict of interests is where there is a direct conflict between a member's duties and responsibilities and their private interests or other duties.

² A 'potential' conflict of interests is where a panel member has a private interest or other duty that could conflict with their duties as a panel member in the future.

³ A 'reasonably perceived' conflict of interests is where a person could reasonably perceive that a panel member's private interests or other duties are likely to improperly influence the performance of their duties as a panel member, whether or not this is in fact the case.

Declaration of Interest

MEETING DATE	16 December 2021
Agenda Item/Panel reference number	CLPP02 - DA/2021/535/1 - Construction of a Residential Flat Building – 88 Podium Way, Oran Park

In relation to this matter, I declare that I have:

no known conflict of interest

an actual¹ , potential² or reasonably perceived³ conflict of interest as detailed below:

Michael Rodger, the applicant from Urbanco, is a colleague who my firm has worked with.

There are no current or active projects with Urbanco, no actual, potential conflicts.

The potential exists for a 'reasonably perceived'
conflict of interest.
