Free family fun at Camden Play Day

ABC Kids TV group, SplashDance will headline the activities and events at Camden Play Day on Sunday 21 May.

The free family focused event hosted by Council will be held as part of National Families Week which this year is themed, Stronger Families, Stronger Communities.

“Families are central to our rapidly growing community and are pivotal in establishing the values and behaviours of our residents now and in the future,” said Mayor Lara Symkowiak.

“There are a range of services available and programs specifically to support young children and families in our area that we want to be sure everyone is aware of,” Cr Symkowiak said.

“This event will be a fun, entertaining day for the whole family to enjoy together,” she said.

SplashDance will perform at the event and share the stage with local children’s dancing groups, choirs, solo artists and martial artists.

The day will include jumping castles, face painting, arts and crafts, baby play activities, kid’s entertainment and an opportunity for families to speak with local service providers.

Camden Play Day will be held 11am-2pm, Sunday 21 May at Kirkham Park, Camden Valley Way and is sponsored by Toyota, Camden Hire and C91.3FM.
