Celebrate International Day of People with Disability

Council will host a free fun day as part of the International Day of People with Disability celebrations next month.

International Day of People with Disability aims to raise awareness, understanding and acceptance of people with a disability.

Mayor Peter Sidgreaves said the event was a great chance for everyone in the community to come together and celebrate.

“This is about celebrating all abilities in our community,” Cr Sidgreaves said.

“Our celebrations will be a great opportunity for the community to connect and enjoy this inclusive day. This will include screenings of the Wide Angle Film Festival, activities by local service providers, giveaways and a range of entertainment.

“Council celebrates International Day of People with Disability annually and is proud to be able to showcase local services available to families and individuals.”

This year’s theme “Empowering persons with disabilities and ensuring inclusiveness and equality” focuses on empowering people with disabilities for the inclusive, equitable and sustainable development.

The event will be held between 11.30am and 2pm at Oran Park Library, 72 Central Avenue, Oran Park on Monday 3 December.
