Vote your favourite landmarks onto the Camden edition of Monopoly

Residents can now vote for their three favourite landmarks from the Camden area, to feature on the first-ever Camden edition of Monopoly.

Residents have a choice of close to 60 locations, including:

- Alan Baker Art Gallery;
- Belgenny Farm, Camden;
- Camden Town Centre;
- Camden Town Farm;
- Cobbitty Markets;
- Curry Reserve Water Play Space;
- Gledswood Homestead;
- Harrington Park Homestead;
- Hilltop Park, Emerald Hills;
- John Oxley Cottage;
- Macarthur Centre for Sustainable Living;
- Mater Dei Chapel, Cobbitty;
- Sedgwick Reserve Youth Play Space; and
- The Australian Botanic Garden

There will also be an 'other' choice, where residents can list a landmark that's not included.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Theresa Fedeli, said the 22 locations with the most votes will feature on the game.

"With so many deserving landmarks, and so many choices in the poll, it's so important our residents jump online and vote for the locations that are special to them," Cr Fedeli said.

"Camden is one of the most beautiful locations in the country, with so much history and natural beauty. I'm so excited to see what spaces make the cut.

"The locations and landmarks chosen will play a special role in selling the game. This is really important because all the funds received from the sale of the game will be donated to Lifeline Macarthur and the Camden Wollondilly Domestic Violence Committee. We want to raise as much money as we can for these two very deserving organisations."

The game is due to hit the shelves in time for Christmas and will be available for purchase, for $60, at:

- Camden Council administration building;
- Oran Park, Camden and Narellan Libraries;
- Camden Visitor Information Centre; and
- Participating local businesses.

Local businesses and organisations still have the unique chance to feature on the game, with three sponsorship packages still available. For more information, visit bit.ly/camdenmonopoly or call Council on 4654 7777, before Friday 31 May.
