Future career options on show for students

Local students can learn about their future career options at the first Camden Youth Jobs and Skills Forum next month.

Hosted by Camden Council, the forum is aimed at Year 11 and 12 students and will include special guest speakers including celebrity chef Luke Mangan OAM, Camden MP Chris Patterson and Camden Region Economic Taskforce president Adriana Care.

Mayor of Camden, Cr Peter Sidgreaves said providing Camden's youth with a variety of career options was an important part of their future.

"Our Jobs and Skills Forum is a great opportunity to provide Camden's youth with advice, skills and insights to assist them in their future choices," Cr Sidgreaves said.

"Coupled with three fantastic speakers, Council has a variety of departments which will be available to pass on information about many different industries.

"Deciding a future career can be daunting, however Council is eager to help our youth into the next stage of their lives."

The Camden Jobs and Skills Forum will be held at Council's Administration Building, 70 Central Avenue in Oran Park on Wednesday 13 February between 9.30am and 2pm.
